THE RACE-TRACK.

Sir Hugo Captures the English Derby Stakes -La Fleche, the Favorite, Second. LONDON, June 1 .- The great English Derby was run to-day at Epsom Downs, and Sir Hugo was the winner. The day was clear and the temperature delightful. Sports of all degrees, from the titled aristocrat to the lowliest cockney, were there. Many went by special train, but the majority rode in vehicles or walked. Early in the morning the procession began. Year after year the same scene has been witnessed, yet each year it loses neither in attractiveness nor interest. Here could be seen the dashing four-inhand, the horses sleek and shining and their harness chains jingling merrily as the animals sprung along the road with a merry party on board. Next, perhaps, would come a cart drawn by a dilapidated specimen of the equine race, whose owner, in his way, was as deeply interested in the outcome of the race as the nobie lord who drove in the four-in-hand. The sporting instinct of every man, and it can be truthfully said of every woman, in the pro-cession, was keenly alive on this day of all days in the English horse-loving world, and every one of them was anxious to see a close race for the honor and money that awaits the Derby winner.

At noon the scene on the Downs was a most brilliant one, and, though none of the members of the royal family attended the race, owing to their being in mourning for the Duke of Clarence and Avondale, the event seemed in no way to have lost in popularity among the other people, for the crowd to-day was the largest that has gathered at Epsom in many years. A spe-cial train carried the Duke of Cambridge, Prince Christian, Prince Henry of Battenberg, the Earl and Countess of Cadogan, the Earl and Countess of Londonderry, the Duchess of Montrose, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Earl of Durham, Lord Alington, Earl Spencer, the Right Hon.
Henry Chaplin, Minister of Agriculture;
Lady Dudley, the Duchess of Manchester, who was with Prince Zoltikoff, a wellknown owner of racing horses; the Duke of Westminster, the Duke of Devonshire, the Earl of Zetland, the Earl of Dudley, Sir Frederick Johnston and Sir John Astler. The whole party watched the race from the jockey club enclosure. Peter Jackson, the colored pugilist, was among the spectators. He attracted far more attention than any person on the grounds. The conditions under which the race was run were as follows: Purse, £6,000, the winner to receive £5,000, the nominator of the winner £500, the owner of the second £300 and the owner of the third £200. The race was for three-year-olds; the distance about one and a half mile. There were thirteen starters. The race was won by Lord Bradford's colt. Sir Huge (by Wisdom, out of Hanceuvre.) Baron de Hirsch's filly. La Fleche (by St. Simon, out of Quiver.) was second, and M. Camille Blanc's colt. Bucentaure (by Saxifrage, out of Benise), third. The other starters were: Rueil, Bonavista, St. Damien, Thessalian, St. Angelo, Llanthony, El Diablo, Persistive, Hatfield and Galeopsis.

The betting before the start was 40 to 1 against Sir Hugo, 11 to 10 against La Fleche, 100 to 1 against Bucentaure, 11 to 1 against Rueil, 12 to 1 against Bucentaure, 11 to 1 against Rueil, 12 to 1 against Bouavista, 14 to 1 against St. Damien, 17 to 1 each against Thessalian, St. Angelo and Liantheny, 20 to 1 against El Diablo, 20 against Persistive, 66 to 1 against Hatfield, and 100 to 1 against Galeopsis. The place betting was 5 to 1 against Sir Hugo, 2 to 1 on La Fleche, 17 to 1 against Enceptaure 20 to 1 against 17 to 1 against Bucentaure, 20 to 1 against Rueil, 5 to 4 against Bonavista, 3 to 1 each against St. Damien, El Diablo and Thessalian, 4 to 1 against Llanthony, 5 to 1 each against Persistive and Hatfield, and 14 to 1 against Galeopsis. The time of the race was 2:44. Sir Hugo was ridden by Alsopp, La Fleche by G. Barrett, and Bucentaure by Chesterman. It was just thirty-one minutes past the fixed starting time when the horses got off. by Llanthony. Persistive and Galeopsis. Persistive soon worked his way to the front, followed by Sir Hugo, St. Angelo and Bucentaure. Hatfield was running at the tail of the bunch. As the leaders were passing the mile post Thessalian rushed to the front, followed by St. Damien, La Fleche and Sir Hugo, in the order named. Seven furlongs from home there was another change in the order of the running, Bucentaure having forged to the front, with Thessalian, Sir Hugo, St. Damien and LaFleche running well and close up. When a quarter of a mile from home Sir Hugo went ahead of Bucentaure, as did La Fleche. The race from then was between Sir Hugo and the favorite, who made a desperate effort to pass the leader. It was no use, however, and the "outsider" that was running at odds of 40 to 1 against him, held his own and came in winner.

A Close Finish at Morris Park. MORRIS PARK RACE-TRACK, June 1 .- Fathis afternoon, the winning first choices being Raindrop, 5 to 2, Bellevue, 1 to 2, and Now-or-Never, 11 to 5. The other three events were captured by Roller at 8 to 1 Madstone, 4 to 1, and Spartan, 5 to 1. The racing lacked sensational features, the nearest approach to excitement being in the fourth race, in which Castaway II, Joe Kelly, Milt Young and Snow Ball finished necks and heads apart at Now-or Never's First Race-Five furlongs, Raindrop won easily by two lengths; Astoria second by a length and a half, Courtship third by Second Race—One mile and a furlong. Bellevue won under a pull by a length; Kingsbridge second by a head, whipping, Gettysburg third by five lengths. Time,

Content Breaks His Leg at Latonia. CINCINNATI, O., June 1 .- There was a large crowd at Latonia to-day. The weather was pleasant and the track good. Seven races were down on the card, of which favorites won the majority. There were very few heavily-backed favorites after the first three races, and throughout the day the betting was pretty evenly distributed among two or three horses in each race. The greatest surprise was when Ko Ko, at 5 to 1, but Judge Caldwell at 1 to 3. In the fifth race Content fell at the half pole and broke his leg and otherwise injured himself. There is not much possibility of his living. Content's rider, Porter, was unburt. Merriment, who won the third race, was sold to his owner, J. O'Leary, for $3,505, $2,005 over his entered price. This gave Little George, who ran second, nearly $1,300. Summaries: First Race—Eleven-sixteenths of a mile. Elsie S. first, Dave Pulsifer secend, Tom Darling third. Time, 1:09 1/5. Second Race—Seven-eighths of a mile, Penn P. first, Foxall second, George K. third. Time, 1:284.

The Talent Did Well at St. Louis. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

St. Louis, June 1.-Six large fields of moderate-class horses faced starter Caldwell to-day. The track was very sticky, and the time made was slow. The talent did very well in picking mud horses, only one outsider coming in first. She was Maud B., in the fifth race, 25 to 1 being posted against ner. Poteen broke down in the last race. Summaries:

First Race-Six and a half furlongs, Servitor won; Burt Jordon second, Leporine third. Time, 1:261/2. Second Race-Five furlongs. Century first, Enoch second, Mamie B. third. Time,

The Cincinnatis Signalize Their First Appearance at Baltimore by Winning a Game. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

BALTIMORE, June 1.-The Cincinnati Reds made their first appearance of the season here this afternoon and did battle with the Orioles. Comiskey, Latham, Browning and the other favorites with the visiting club were all received with applause. The Cincinnatis won the game because of timely batting in the third and eighth innings. The home team batted Chamberlain bard. but their hits were scattered. Healy was injured in the eighth inning and was replaced by Cobb. Attendance, 1,382. Washington, 8; Cleveland, 7.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, June 1 .- The Washington-Cleveland game to-day was a slugging contest from the beginning, but the hits were so scattered in the first few innings that they did not mater ally count in the score. The visitors had a comfortable lead up to the ninth inning, when damaging errors by Davis and Zimmer, aided by a base on balls and two hits, netted the Senators five runs and the game. Score:

Philadelphia, 12; Chicago, 3.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PHILADELPHIA, June 1 .- The Philadelphias hit Hutchinson's delivery to every part of the field to-day, and, as Chicago's field play was decidedly loose at times, they scored a comparatively easy victory. Weyhing, who relieved Keefe in the second inning, was steadily effective, and was superbly supported. Attendance, 2,511.

Hits-Chicago, 9; Philadelphia, 12. Errors-Chicago, 5; Philadelphia, 1. Batteries-Hutchin-Chicago, 5; Philadelphia, 1. Batteries—Hutchinson and Schriver; Weyhing, Keefe and Clements. Boston, 5; St. Louis, 1. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

BOSTON, June 1.-Boston won easy today, owing to Nichols's effective pitching. Breitenstein's wild and Bird's weak throwing to bases helped it. Boston got three of its four hits in the third. St. Louis, in the third, had three men on bases and one out, but did not score, as Carroll struck out and Werden bit weak. St. Louis scored its only run in the fourth, Pinckney and Brodie getting bases on balls, the former scoring on Caruthers's single. Brodie was thrown out at the plate and the next two batsmen went out on flies. Brodie, Crooks, Nichols and Duffy excelled in fielding. Score:

Brooklyn, 12; Louisville, 4. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

BROOKLYN, June 1.-The Brooklyns had lots of fun with Meekin to-day. They began to pound his delivery in the very first inning and continued the slugging throughout the game. Brouthers and Burns led in the slaughter, each securing four hits, two of Brouthers's being clean home runs. Joyce was away off in his fielding and was responsible for most of Louisville's runs.

Hits-Brooklyn, 18; Louisville, 10. Errors-Brooklyn, 5; Louisville, 1. Batteries-Inks and Daily; Meekin and Dowse. Earned runs-Brooklyn, 7. First base by errors—Brooklyn, 2; Louisville, 2. Oh, Those Bloomington Fellows. A student at DePauw, Greencastle, over the initials of "W. C. R.," takes up the cudgel in defense of the DePauw base-bail team, which probably lost the intercollegiate pennant by its defeat at Bloomington Saturday. He complains bitterly of the treatment received at the hands of the Indiana University men, as follows:

We were not treated with the courtesy due to the most lowly visitor of any college. We never were treated so rank before The game, though won by the I. U. men, was not fairly won, and surely should be no credit to the winning side. Had it been on grounds at all fit the result would have been different. In order that they might rattle our men the local band was ordered out, and, with discords hideous enough to drive even a Methodist to drink, they marched around the diamond during the progress of the game. We were also favored with all sorts of "side-shows" that would tend to disgust the most fun-loving. The participants of these were mostly negroes, but they were egged on by the students, who should be far above such capers. But we hope some time in the future to have an opportunity to meet the late victors on equal grounds, and then we will show the base-ball world how to win an honest game.

We are showing now a 27-pound "JAMES" road wheel and a 32-pound "REFORM," both alike exciting the envy and admiration of the most experienced wheelmen of Indianapolis. They are the world's supremest attainment in the art of cycle building to the present hour, the result of twenty-three years' experience as designer and builder, and all the time a rider. Do not think for an instant that we have something new that we wish to "try on the dog." It is you who have been left in the woods, along with the man who still goes to mill with a rock in one and of his sack of corn. You are yet told to stay there—and buy 60-pound wheels. We appeal to your intelligence and not to your prepound wheels. We appeal to your intelligence and not to your pre-judgment. We give you as much "name" for your dollar as any one; less old iron and gimeracks and more satisfaction. "Better be sure than sorry." Repair work as fine as our wheels. Installment plan, but we don't refuse cash, or old wheels, or both. All three if you want. MINOR & HUNTER, 92-96 North Meridian, in the shadow of the Monument.
